

100 (I) Why must we gather together

For those believers who have 100 excuses of why they don't gather with like-minded Christians, it may be time to step up & find, or even create a group of family, friends, co-workers & others, to learn, together, all you can about what God has planned, as groups are about individual's growth & helping each other, to see what God has planned for each of us, as individuals, as well as groups.

Let's hold firmly to the confession of our hope, without wavering, for He who promised is faithful & let's consider how to encourage one another in love & good deeds, not abandoning our own meeting together & encouraging one another, as we see the day drawing near, Hebrews 10:23-25.

It takes small groups learning & working together to inflict positive change into a community, especially to positively influence the youth & upcoming generations, which is one place where a little time & effort, from a few caring individuals, can cause great positive change, one group & one step at a time.

It does not have to be a religious event, just a group of persons, unjudgmentally sharing & learning how to help others, together. In Mathew 4:19, Jesus said follow me I & will make you fishers of men, He did not say, fishers of good men, sinless men, clean men, men without addictions, or troubles, but all who are willing to hear. He said Men, referring to all humanity, of which He knew, none were good, all are broken & all are worth being recovered by Him, from the ills of this world, so that the found can be taught to lead the lost, into relying on Him, for a new recovered life.

We are all disciples, recovered by God from the selfish evil of this world, through what Christ went through & gave up for us, knowing that all lives matter & that all can be changed, which is why we need to step up & show others this truth, as well as how to take control of the negative mindsets & strongholds in their lives, as we join together, as winners & saints, with Christ.

We are a small part, of a revived army of God's servants, who are learning why we are to care about those that have found their lives wrapped up in a world of brokenness, as we believe God when He instructs us, in Galatians 6:1, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit should restore that person gently & bear one another's burdens & as Christ said in Luke 23:24, forgive them for they know not what they do & Mathew 5:24, love your enemies & pray for those who persecute you, & we intend to answer the call that God has put on all believers in Mark 16:15, Go into all the world & preach the Good News to everyone, while remembering always the wisdom & promise of Mathew 6:15, if you do not forgive others of their trespasses, your Father will not forgive yours.

It is time for us to flood those in our circles & beyond with love, education, support & tools, for all to be able to find value in themselves & others, as we are recovered from satans grip & should be experiencing extreme personal growth in faith & should be using our time for the building up of others, who may be lost, broken, lonely, or wavering on the verge of self-destruction.
