

101 Intro. 1% of your day.

How much of your valuable time does God deserve? God did create time for sharing with others, yet more importantly to share with Him.

Do you understand what valuable time, truly consists of?

One day the concept of time will disappear for all & the only true value that will be found, is the time that was spent with God, doing those things that He taught us, that pleased Him & blessed us, while in effect laying up treasures for us & our eternal life, on the new earth with Christ.

Would you like to discover how to find time, to spend quality time with God? As He would like to with you? Draw near to God & He will draw near to you, James 4:8.

What earthly carnal desires would you be willing to give up, to become closer to the One who created you & who loved you 1st? 1John 4:19 & who wants to spend forever with you.

Sometimes with such serious subjects we need to go beyond comfort zones & think about & even view uncomfortable truths. e.g. If you knew that you would tragically die today, believer, or not, do you think that you would find some time to spend with God? Just to bring this into a greater perspective look up the United States death clock @ United States Deaths Clock - IndexMundi or <https://www.indexmundi.com/clocks/indicator/deaths/united-states>.

& actually watch a think about the clocks numbers for a few minutes, while also going over some of the stats. e.g. In the U.S. a person dies every 11.1 seconds, or 324 every hour, 7755 per day, for over 2.8 million U.S. deaths a year & 67 million worldwide, with heart disease being the #1 cause & affecting all ages.

Hopefully you have realized by viewing this clock, that absolutely not one person in this world, can be absolutely sure that they will not be taking their last breath & their last chance to talk with God, here today? & with understanding this do you think that you could handle, faithfully, offering Him, 1% of each new day, which He allows you to use?

I truly believe that if you will promise & follow through, faithfully & openly, with giving God 1%, to start, which is 14.4 minutes of each day, that after a few weeks you will be surprised, if not astounded, at the changes in your thinking & life.

Be advised that following God may not make life easier, it surely didn't for Jesus, but staying faithful will make life better & will absolutely make eternal life easier & better, So get bold & get brave & get ready to stand up & take that leap of faith, for the long haul, with the billions who have followed before you, in life & in death.

It's up to you, you can choose to dedicate a minimum of 1% of life, each day, to build up a better, stronger, more loving Godly minded you, along with a better relationship, with family, friends, community & your biggest fan & Creator, God Himself.

Spending quality valuable time to get to truly know God better, according to Gods truths, not religious minded traditions & beliefs, should flow into a better life of caring relationships with others, created by the same God, that loves us all, individually, personally & equally: sins & all, wherever we may be in our life & walk with Him.

So, if you feel that you could use more of God in your life, it's because you haven't realized yet, that He has given His all for & to you, including His Sons life & everything that you could ever need & now He wants more of you in His life, to stand in, prove & testify of His love. Test Him, prove Him & pray to God often & if you don't believe in Him, tell Him so, ask Him to prove Himself to you, as He is the only one who truly can & He will, if you truly ask & wait.

Despise not prophesying, try all things & keep that which is good, 1 Thessalonians 5:20,21. If ye believe not, surely ye shall not be established, the Lord spoke again saying ask a sign of the Lord Isaiah 7:9-11. Bring all the tithes into the storehouse & prove me now says the Lord & I will open the windows of heaven unto you & pour you out immeasurable blessings, Malachi 3:10. Dearly beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God, for many false Prophets are gone out into the world, but you will know the Spirit of God, as every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God & every spirit that confesses not that Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God, but is the spirit of the Antichrist, of whom is already in this world, but ye are of God & have overcome them, for greater is He that is in you, than he that is in this world. 1 John 4:1-4.

Now there will be things, as prideful humans, that we disagree on & that's okay; but study, pray, test & prove God's ways & move on, as we don't have to see things the same, or agree on all things, to be mature friends, united for a better way of life for all, with Christ leading the way.

It's time to see that if you want to be blessed, then you need to learn to be a blessing, if you want to be happy, then you need to be okay with helping others to be happy & if you want to see radical life changes, then you must be able to open your mind to radical life changes, in seeking a better way of life, while remembering to spend a minimum of 1% of each day with God, praying to Him, as well as studying His ways & learning about all His promises, blessings & truths that He intended for you/ us to love & lift up all who need a true friend; not to judge each other, as if we were better than any other, as that is not our job. Our job is to learn to love all our neighbors, as we love ourselves, regardless of gender, culture, color, social, economic status, or any group affiliations e.g. religious, political or others.

We are to accept each other for the spirit of God that lives within us, not to judge those who we have no idea what happened in their lives, to get them to the point of their thinking, or behaviors that they may be displaying now. We have not walked in anyone else's shoes, or mind & have no right to pretend that their lives, or sins, are any worse than our own, as all have sinned & fallen short of the glory of God & ALL repentant believers, are justified, freely, by His grace, through redemption of what Christ did for all, Romans 3:23.

So, it is time to decide, if positive life change, through spending time with the spirit of all goodness, is worth a minimum of 14.4 minutes of your time, every day & if so, then it's up to you & God, on how you want to accomplish this.

I will add that it is best to do it at the start of your day, to be prepared for what the day holds, as you will find many excuses throughout the day, trying to test you & take this time from you, to keep you from becoming the person, in Christ, with the mind of Christ, that you are capable of becoming & to share in the peace, of giving all the burden of judgement, back to God.

So, if there is room for improvement in your life, for becoming a bit more patient in those unnecessary stressful moments, where we all seem to jump to un-righteous judgements towards others, whether they know it or not, e.g. road rage, work/home stress, past mistakes etc. then you may want to participate in our 101 blogs, as well as blogs 102-105, to come to understand the true Spirit of God, that can live within you & how to manifest its full glory & joy, in your life.

So decide now what time of day you can dedicate faithfully to God & think about what you want to know of Him? What do you want to ask Him, talk to Him like a friend, as He is. Also download a study bible on your computer & cell phone, if you have them & remember don't just read God's word to read it, study it to get answers for all that you wonder about.

Pick specific subjects & study them throughout the whole bible, for complete answers & understanding & as you get your answers, move on with another question, or subject & so on, as you will never come to an end of the wonderful experiences of learning & growing in God's Word, Wisdom & Love.
