

103 (C) Political indifference, towards God.

More Christians should be prayerful, in seeing the forest for the trees, when it comes to political engagement, as one really should never marry themselves to any one political stronghold, or mindset, as politics change with the economy & we follow & serve a King who changes for nothing, as His word is truth & is perfect & stands for eternity, regardless of the hate & lie filled politics of men.

So many seem to act like they have forgotten, that God always has been & always will be in control, regardless of what things look like to us & often because of us, as God will allow officials, who we think we want, to be in control over us, sometimes for his hidden purpose, whatever that may be, but always with an outcome that He will use for His purpose & His Good, even though we may not be spiritually mature enough, to see, or understand it, yet.

Governments are not in place for our pleasure & God reminds us that man chose to be Governed by others besides Him, but He still uses all things for His purpose, so when you use politics to spread hatred towards your fellow man, who believes differently than you, you are putting your trust in man & in effect rebelling against God's truth that no one is allowed in these places of power, without God's willing it, even the evil ones, are only in place, as God for His own purpose, has allowed it.

God says love your neighbor & submit to your official's laws, satan says hate those that think differently & stand against & disobey those laws that God is using for His purpose, remembering that we are of God, even as the whole world lies in the power of the evil one, 1 John 5:19.

Romans 13:1-3, says let every soul be subject to the governing authorities (as long as they don't put us against God) for there is no authority, except from God & the authorities that exist are appointed by God. So whoever resists the rules of those elected to office, resists the ordinance of God & will bring judgment on themselves.

For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil, so do not be afraid of authority & do what is good & you will find praise from that which is good.

So who do you choose to listen to. Do you follow satan & hate those in office, whom God says He has His hands on, or do you trust & follow God, trusting in His big picture, for the whole forest, beyond those few trees that are turning you into satans best advocates, for hatred.

Politics has somehow turned into a negative religious bashing tool, teaching that Christians shouldn't love all people, as God commanded, but should hate some, as satan commands & then pick and choose who you want to love, rather than who God says to?

I'm simply asking what God asked & I love all either way, but I sure would love, to love all through eternity, instead of just until were separated, when judgment comes.

Many think that a country is only as great as its leaders, but a people is as great as the God that they allow to rule their hearts, minds, souls & eternity, but if these people, hate those that don't believe, or think as they do; that's not a great people, that's a push for communism, or socialism, where everyone must think alike, or be alienated, or killed. So, if you want the right to your own beliefs & opinions about anything, including political agendas, then you should respect everyone's, as when they lose their rights, we all lose our rights.
