

100 D. Some Assembly Required.

To understand how valuable you truly are & to use the gifts that you have been flooded with, you need to see that you were created by & for something greater than what you know.

To understand this you need to fix your thinking processes, by fixing any mistaken beliefs, that you may have learned, from otherwise trusted sources, as we were all created with some assembly required & who & what we allowed to be part of this process, is what has gotten us, our thoughts, beliefs & traditions, to where we are at; be it good, bad, or indifferent.

It's important to realize that we did not create ourselves, though we did have a say in the building process, as we chose what to hold onto as truth & what to discard as trash, which often was decided more by feelings, family, friends & traditions, rather than on good, solid, proven truths. We were created through Gods love to know the truth, yet we were assembled through worldly & personal ideas, beliefs & choices, which allowed our minds to conceive that, what we think, feel, know & believe, is truth, but we may have mistaken the feelings & ideas of real, as being true; as feelings & beliefs can be real & not be true, e.g. have you ever just felt dead tired, or like you've been hit by a truck; so were you dead, or hit?

What about have you ever believed that God, or another, was ignoring, or hated you? Again; feelings & beliefs, no matter how strong, or believable, do not equal truths!

God has made you, to be so much more than what thoughts & beliefs tell you that you are, so it's time to stop listening to what the world "knows", or says about you & to start becoming the person, that God has created you to be. Jesus says, if you abide in my Word, you are My disciple & you will know the truth & the truth will set you free, John 8:31.

It is time to prove God & to seek true freedom, through some thought-provoking truths, while discerning & proving your way through all that God has given in these words, some of which will go against what you want to hear, or what you have believed, but we must remember that truth is truth & is what God wants for us & what we should want as well. So, if you choose to believe it, or not; like it, or not; or listen to it, or not; I challenge you to hear God's truth & to stop just accepting opinions, traditions, inferences & personal beliefs, as truth, as if you truly want to represent the truth, as we all have a Godly duty to do.

It is time to deeply examine all information, no matter how trusted the source, before just accepting it, just because you were taught it, heard it, learned it & believed it.

If you are ready to be truly challenged, then say a prayer, leave your pride & ego behind & get ready for some deep growth into God's word & truth. At times it may appear that I am standing alone; At times it may appear that the world is against me, or that I am judging, or being judged; At times it may appear that I am not sure of where I should stand & all these have one thing in common, they are appearances, which can cause others to go against God & His Holy given truths, but appearances do not equal truths.

So ask yourself, do you follow men's truths, your truths, church truths, or God's truths?
