

103 F. Led by Beliefs or Truth.

Let's get down & dirty, so we can get lifted up & cleansed properly. What's your 1st reaction when someone says something bad about your mom? Maybe calls your mom the "B" word, what do you think of that person? So, have you ever called anyone a bad name? ya but, but what? So, you believe in free will for you, but want it regulated for others? That's childish & doesn't work that way.

Have you ever said that you hated anyone? Did you know that God says hatred of another, is equal to murder in the heart

So do you believe that you have the right to say derogatory things about others, that you may not like, but other people don't have the free will right to dislike you, or yours, or say things, true or not, about you & yours, too bad, grow up & get over it.

You might as well learn that everyone has the right to hate you & your mother & to call your mother every name in the book & you still need to love them, as God commands, as God said love all people, not just those that like, or love, or do things your way, or for you, as anyone can do that, but if you claim to be a Christian, then the Spirit of God & Christ lives within you & should be operating through you & they could care less about what another thinks about you, or your mother, as long as you react with the love, joy & wisdom, of He who you claim lives within you.

God does not need our un-Christian i.e. evil pride, anger, or vengeance, to overtake us in a true moment of testing, of our love for God & His Word & Ways.

Learn to take control of & turn these heated moments into Christian moments, or to hand them over to God, while learning that if you want free will, including being able to preach the Gospel, then you must accept the fact that God gave every human being free will & satan can use that as well, to get others to say & think what they want, about who they want, with any repercussions or vengeance coming from God alone & He does care about every bad thing against you, or from you & will deal with it in His way & His time.

Now even though God commands that you love all, as He loves you, you do not have to like, or condone them, or their ways, but if you want free will in your life then you must respect that they also have the right to feel whatever they feel, however they feel, whenever they feel it & if you don't believe this, then you don't know God, or Christ, because again, it is supposed to be Christ that lives within you & Christ is the one who gives free will & if you want it for you, but want to limit others, then that is not living in the name of Jesus & remember there are many ungodly people out there, so don't expect them to act in a Christian, or Godly manner towards you, when they are not Christians, nor Godly, but you are, so show it in your actions towards them i.e. Don't be like them, just because they treat you wrongly, as that's who they are, not who you are.

Well so what am I supposed to do when someone hollers at my mom? or calls my mom a name that I don't like?

Well let me tell you, read this passage again & learn what God says you're supposed to do.
