

Lost & Found (100A)

Welcome to the lost & found, we are a group of the churched, unchurched, under-church'd, overchurched & all other equally worthy coherent seekers of the wealth of wisdom available to us. This great gift can be held by all who are willing to listen to & act on God's absolute truths, as per God's word & even if you don't believe in God, or that it's God's words, with any sensible discerning thought, you can see that the concepts of the good, that we believe in, are surely good ideals for all humanity, so believing in God, or not, has nothing to do with learning to live the good life, of caring, sharing, forgiving, loving & understanding.

Now this is not about any organized church's truth, or religious leaders truth, or friends & family's truths, but strictly on "It is written" biblical truth's, which we consider to be God's untampered word, as given to men, through third party omniscience & the Holy spirit & penned & picked, under extreme scrutiny, as purely God given letters, with no adding of personal user friendly thoughts, inferences, traditions, or beliefs, as God doesn't need men's help, on what He means, regardless of men's liking it, or not, as the earth is God's classroom & we are His students.
