

103 C. God or Political indifferences.

More Christians need to remember to look to see the forest for the trees, not in spite of the trees, especially when it comes to politics.

So many seem to act like they have forgotten that God is always in control for all & that He allows Gov. officials (good & bad) to be in place, for His future purposes, whatever that may be.

It's time to realize that Governments are not in place for our pleasure & God reminds us, that man asked to be Governed by others, besides Him, but He still uses all things for His purpose, so when you use politics to spread hatred towards your fellow man, who believes differently than you, you are in effect rebelling against God's truth & love.

Where God says love your neighbor & submit to your official's laws, satan says hate those that think different & stand against & disobey the law, that God is using for His purpose & remember that we are not far from God, even as the whole world lies in the power of the evil one, 1 John 5:19, the kingdom of God is near & very powerful.

Romans 13:1-3: "Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. So whoever resists the authority, resists the ordinance of God & those who resist will bring judgment on themselves.

For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise for the same.

So who do you choose to listen to. Do you follow satan & hate those in office, which Gods word says He has His hands on, or do you trust & follow God & trust in His big picture, for the whole forest, beyond those dead trees that are turning you into satans best advocators, for hatred.

Politics seem to be teaching people that Christians shouldn't love all people, as God commanded, but should hate some, as Satan commands & then pick and choose who you want to love, not who God says to?

I'm just asking, what God asked me & I love you either way, but I sure would love, to love you, through eternity, instead of just until we were separated, when the different separating judgment comes.

Many think that a country is only as great as its leaders, but a people is as great as the God that they allow to rule their hearts, minds, souls & eternity, but if these people, hate those that don't believe, or think as they do; that's not a great people, that's a push for communism, or socialism, where everyone must think alike, or be killed.

If you want the right to your own beliefs & opinions about anything, including political agendas, then you should respect everyone's, because the day they lose their rights, you lose yours.
