

103 D. How do U use God's name

Let's get real about the Holy of Holies name, oh my God you did what? Oh my God you're a Catholic? oh my God you're an atheist? oh my God etc. etc etc. Why are you calling on God, using his name in a way that you don't even realize, when you truly are not calling on Him?

What's the difference between oh my God, or holy shxx? Why would anyone use God's Holy name or Holiness, to slander, or in disbelief, or for any reason, other than to call on Him, or to Bless Him.

If you're going to say, "oh my God" add some love, or a respect to it, e.g. oh my God I love you, oh my God I need your help, oh my God ?, but don't immaturely sinfully use God's name to express your anger, surprise, satisfaction, or dissatisfaction, or unbelief, as He is listening & you don't want to offend your Father, King & God with such simpleness.

When you call on God use his name to talk to Him, not in vain to express whatever it is you're expressing. Oh my God is used as a down & dirty topic e.g. oh my God, you believe in the Trinity? yes that's an iffy topic, so someone who believes in something you don't, or believes in rapture that you don't, so what do you do? You love them, you allow them they're free will, as we all have the right to believe what we choose, but be sure to search & find the truth, about what you believe in, but don't put them down for their beliefs, but you can share proofs & truths.

Once you find the truth, you will also find that as long as we believe Christ came, born of a virgin & died to pay for our sins & rose again 3 days later, then we are saved, regardless of any other right, or false beliefs, that we should all take time to study & prove together, while remembering that, I love you so much, should follow, "Oh my God" as words truly do matter, though many get lost throughout the trees.
