

ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT WILL DESTROY HUMANITY..

700 years after Noah & the flood, we find the earth re-populating, with all people speaking one language, as they migrate together to Babylonia, while becoming self & ego centered, in awe of their own accomplishments & greatness, instead of being thankful, gracious, humbled & God centered.

Soon they begin talking about building a great city with a tower that reaches to the heavens, a monument to bring & keep them all together & reminding them of their greatness, but when the Lord came down to see the city & the tower, He thought; if they are acting like this now, with thoughts that they could be greater than God, just think of the self fulfilling, pride filled society & the ungodly accomplishments that they may become capable of, or entwined in, if left together?

So God stepped in & separated them, for their own good, giving them different languages, so that they could not communicate & to which they separated & scattered into tribes around the earth, which ended the building of Nimrod's, idolatrous tower of Babel.

This is why the city was called Babel, because it was there that the Lord confused them & gave them many languages, sounding like babbling to each other, Genesis 11:1-9.

God's reason for scattering the human race here, with different languages, was to avoid the disaster of a one world government & taking of God's blessings of knowledge & capabilities & using them for ungodly acts, rather than for doing good in God's eyes, as if they had continued, in due time, nothing would be impossible for them & man would come to worship men's power & idols instead of God, which is a prophecy of the coming times e.g. Political, economic, religious oneness: right or wrong?

There's prophecy of a United Nations group, policing the world, where satan is given authority to rule over every tribe & people & language & nation, Rev. 13:7.

For a United Purpose, they worshiped the dragon & they also worshiped the beast, Rev. 13:4. This global government, seen in Revelation, will unify humanity politically, centuries after God put a stop to such a huge act of arrogance at the tower of babel, humanity will establish a unified political structure under the rule of the Antichrist, in which man will challenge Gods authority.

This desire of the human race, to worship & rule itself, continues today & will come in one final attempt to usurp God's authority. This great rebellion, a.k.a. Armageddon has a clear purpose, as the unsaved, will gather all its armies to battle against God & they will lose & all die.

So far in Genesis, the First book of the bible, we have found the power of love, faith & rewards, as well as man's failings, disobedience & the consequences, punishments & destruction which must follow, as God is just & honest & as such much judge sin harshly, just as He said He would. When you break the law & go in front of a judge, he must follow sentencing guidelines, regardless of feelings, or the wailings, excuses, or promises of the defendant, as the law is the law & the judge is the judge & must pass sentencing in accordance with the laws & rules that He set forth for all.

So God must judge sin, which seems to be breeding wickedness at a rate beyond belief, but this is how satan works & this is his plan of destruction, for all who will listen to him, as he has come to kill, steal & destroy all who will follow him, into the saddest most deceived group ever, the lost doomed children of darkness, who unwittingly are facing an eternal torment beyond belief, due to their own free will choice of enjoying, the temporary, immediate gratification, things of the earth, while living in disobedience to the one who offers life & has the keys to their fate in His hands, namely God.

So you can choose to stand together, party together, sin together, rebel together, with all those that think bad is good & good is bad, but I guarantee you that no matter how close you are, that when the real bad starts, you will be facing your judgement alone. You will one day discover the eternal torment of paying the price for the sins, that you once thought were no big deal & of which God even offered to pay, if you would repent & turn towards Him, but once that offer expires, you will be on your own, with the one that came to kill, steal & destroy, as satan only came to inflict pain & torment on every one, who was created in the image of his sworn enemy (God) & never to make friends with them, just to make them think that, so that he could get his hooks into your soul, to cause God much displeasure. Once the end comes, satan & his minions will have no use for you, as they will be facing their own judgements & tortures, nor will your friends be able to help, as they too will be facing judgments, or rewards, depending on if they have repented to follow life, or have followed satan into eternal loneliness?

Lord we know that since the beginning of time there have been those that have tried to relinquish, deny & question your power & love for your people, just as there are today & I am here to say to you Lord; That if you told me today, that I just wasn't going to make it to Heaven & that when I died I would be stuck in eternal torment in Hell, with all the eternally tormented screaming, crying, burning non-believers; that I would still worship & serve you, in winning souls to heaven, all the days of my life on earth & in hell, because as unworthy as I am & regardless of my earned fate, you are still more than worthy of all the glory, love, faith & praise, for all of our days.
